VISION FOR RECONCILIATION

Our vision for reconciliation is an Australia that acknowledge, respects and celebrates over 60,000 years of continuous Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander cultures and histories whilst recognising our shared national identity from the time of colonisation. Our vision is that all Australians will have a deep knowledge and understanding of our nation's ancient and modern history and an acknowledgement of past injustices and the current impacts of these injustices.

At Naremburn School, we are building relationships between Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people and the broader Australian community are equal, equitable and respectful.

Our community of staff and students will continue to respectfully explore and appreciate the history of the Cammeraygal people and the Country on which we work and learn. We will continue to actively engage with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, further developing an understanding of Country and reflecting on our personal connections to the land. We will respectfully explore the languages of the Aboriginal peoples of the Eora Nation, guided by First Nations organisations and scholars.

Naremburn School will be a school without racism which embraces and celebrates the diversity among its staff and students. The dimensions of reconciliation will be permanently embedded within the school and will be continuously evolving.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF COUNTRY

We at Naremburn School acknowledge the Cammeraygal people of the Eora Nation as the Traditional Owners of the Lands on which our school is found. We pay our respects to their Elders past, present and emerging, and extend that respect to other Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people with us here today.

RAP ACTIONS	COMMITMENT
Teach about Reconciliation	Our school community is committed to learning about reconciliation in Australia. Having an understanding of the concept, history and progress of reconciliation is an important part of continuing the reconciliation journey. This understanding also helps to strengthen engagement with our school's RAP by positioning it within the broader story of reconciliation in Australia.
Teach about Days of National Significance	We commit to incorporating nationally significant days for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples and reconciliation into our curriculum to increase knowledge of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander histories, cultures, contributions and contemporary issues. We also commit to including Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander perspectives when teaching about other national days, such as 26 January (Australia Day) and ANZAC Day.
Explore Current Affairs and Issues	We are committed to raising awareness of current affairs and issues in the public domain that are of particular significance to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples and the process of reconciliation. This will be done through curriculum delivery, policies and procedures, and will be integrated into the ethos of our school.

Acknowledgement of Country	Our school recognises the continuing connection of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples to the Country on which we live, work, learn and grow. All staff and students have the opportunity to show respect to Traditional Owners and Custodians by regularly conducting an Acknowledgement of Country at meetings and events throughout the year.
Visibly Demonstrate Respect for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Cultures	We commit to demonstrating our respect for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander histories and cultures in the physical environment of our school. We understand that making our respect visible in the learning environment through the incorporation of meaningful, relevant and culturally appropriate art, artefacts and symbolism reinforces our work toward reconciliation. It also makes our intentions and actions clear to our students, parents and the broader community.
Care for Country	We commit to actively connecting with, and caring for, the Country/place on which our school stands. This involves respectfully learning about Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander perspectives, philosophies and practices about caring for Country/place, as well as physically demonstrating respect for the skies, waterways and Land on which we live and learn. We will consider First Nations perspectives as part of broader sustainability plans, policies and practices. This will reinforce the meaningful and continuous connections Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples have continued to have with Country/place since time immemorial, as well as provide positive opportunities for all members of our educational community to become socially and environmentally responsible citizens who display a growing awareness of the importance of First Nations land management and sustainability.
